

THE PRICE.

No lady wants to pay more than an article is worth even if it is pretty. The workmanship and style of our suits are all that a stylish dresser could desire but the prices are reasonable. We have about 12 sample suits that we offer at $10 and $12.50. The long Coat Suits at $11.50, $16.50, $20 and $25. Come and look whether you wish to buy or not.

TAILOR-MADE SUITS.

We now have on sale 50 of the very newest styles in long Coat Suits. These goods are made by artists in this line and in the most sanitary shapes in the country. They are not the "over done" kind but are the kind that you will not tire of. We are careful to select such materials as will give service yet their appearance when worn does not show it.

Silk And Sateen Petticoats.

See our leader, a black silk petticoat at $5; others at $6.50 and $7.50. Made as only those who are artists in their line can make them.

A Look.—You can not know of the variety and magnitude of our stock unless you let us show you.

SEVERANCE & SON, STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

STANFORD, KY., - Oct. 24, 1905

Now! It's Penny's White Pine and Tar. See our window. Penny's Drug Store.

PERSONALS.

MISS KATE DAVIES RANEY is ill. Mrs. J. B. WILLIS of Crab Orchard Springs, was here Saturday.

MISS JENNIE HUBBLE, of Middleburg, is very ill with typhoid fever.

MISS MARGARET LEWIS is suffering an aggravated case of tonsillitis. Mrs. R. R. HURRIGAN, of Marion county, is with her parents here.

REV. S. M. LOGAN, of Wilmore, attended the burial of Mrs. Emily Saufley.

MR. E. D. KENNEDY has resumed his position as guard at the Lexington Asylum.

MRS. W. H. SHANKS returned yesterday from a visit to her parents in Madison.

MR. G. A. McROBERTS and wife, of Covington, are with her parents in Garrard.

WILLIE G. MURPHY, of McKinney, has entered Cherry's Business College at Bowling Green.

JUDGE J. BOYLE STONE and daughter, of Liberty, attended the burial of Mrs. Emily Saufley.

CHAS. E. COX, of Corbin, accompanied the remains of his grandmother to this place for burial.

MR. B. K. SWOPE, of Middleburg, was here Saturday on his way to Garrard to visit relatives.

MESDAMES WM. MORELAND and Roland Drake, of Lexington are guests of Mrs. W. C. Shanks.

MR. AND MRS. A. A. McKINNEY, of Louisville, arrived Saturday to visit friends here and in Garrard.

MRS. G. A. SILER and son, A. B. Siler, of High Cliff, Tenn., are visiting relatives in Lincoln and Garrard.

MRS. ALBA POPE CARR and little daughter, Miss Lydia Carr, of Danville, were guests at Mrs. John Bright, Sr.

MRS. GIVENS, the handsome wife of Dr. Jackson Givens, of Pittsburg, was on Friday's train returning from Louisville.

Our good friend, Mr. H. C. Bright, is a candidate for councilman in Danville. We hope he will win by a thousand.

MR. W. A. DOTY, who has been residing at Pueblo, Col., passed through yesterday to visit his parents at Lancaster.

CAPT. J. B. WILLIS and wife, of Crab Orchard Springs, spent Sunday with their son, T. C. Willis.—Jessamine Journal.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. George D. Wearen Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

MR. THOMAS H. SHANKS left this morning for Kansas City, Mo., where he will locate for the practice of his profession—the law.

MRS. LULA ALLEN CORMNEY has moved to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Allen. Mr. E. C. Gorman and family will occupy the cottage she vacated.

MR. GEORGE HELM, of Clifton, Texas, has been here on a visit to the aged Mr. Samuel Helm, of the Turnersville section, and other relatives and friends. It was his first visit in 35 years and it was enjoyed greatly both by Mr. Helm and his many friends.

ARCH RIFFE and handsome wife have returned from a visit to relatives at McKinney. Mrs. W. Logan Wood has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Claunch. J. M. Carter, of Moreland, is here on business. Dave Allen, of McKinney, is in Pulaski this week buying live stock.—Somerset Mountaineer.

LOCALS.

A NICE lot of Timothy seed. T. D. Newland.

BUY your coal while the weather is good. We can suit you in price and quality. Northcott & Buck, Rowland Ky.

THE L. & N. will run its last $1.50 round-trip excursion to Cincinnati Sunday, 29th. Train leaves Stanford depot at 5 A. M.

STORE-ROOM, the best in Stanford, for rent. Possession Jan. 1, 1906. Now occupied by J. P. Jones and splendidly located. S. H. Shanks, Stanford.

THE election is just two weeks off to-day. Better stir your stumps if you are going to do anything for the splendid ticket the democrats nominated nearly a year ago.

RAISINS, currants, citron, etc., for cakes. T. D. Newland.

NICE line ladies' skirts, jackets and children's cloaks. W. E. Perkins, Crab Orchard.

AT Stanford Green Houses bulbs of all kinds now ready. John Chrisman, proprietor.

LOST, gold pin with "L. L. W." engraved on it. Leave at this office and get reward.

SENATOR MCCREARY spoke at Lancaster to a large crowd yesterday. His speech was a telling one.

SEE our turquoise granite ware; the nicest and at the lowest prices ever shown. George H. Farris.

LOST.—Pocket book between Stanford and Jake Robinson's. Return to this office and get reward.

I HAVE added a cleaning pressing and general repair business. Suits made new. Give me a trial. Ed Wilkinson.

THE Stanford High School eleven defeated the Central University preparatory football team 21 to 0 on the grounds here Friday afternoon. While the game was one-sided, it was very interesting at times.

DEMOCRATS should work overtime between now and the election for the splendid ticket that will appear under the rooster. Any man with a spark of democracy ought to want to see the republican-ex-democrat lay out buried good and deep.

OUR display of Japanese hand painted china ware is conceded to be the best ever shown by us. These goods are sold now at an immense saving to you. Have you bought your Xmas goods? If not, why not now? We leave next month. John P. Jones.

MR. A. W. CARPENTER, of the West End, who seems to be "daffy" on running for office, will make the race for State Senator on the prohibition ticket. Of course he has no show of being elected, but he no doubt thinks he needs exercise and is going to have it.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.—I or one of my deputies will be at Crab Orchard, Oct. 28, Mt. Salem Nov. 3rd, 1 P. M., at Waynesburg, on Thursday, Nov. 2, Hustonville Nov. 4th, from 7 A. M. to 12 o'clock to collect taxes. Will have all road claims with me that have not been called for. M. S. Baughman, S. L. C.

ELER'S Rip Van Winkle Co. pleased a good sized audience at Walton's Opera House Saturday night. Harry F. Horne, who took the role of Rip, was exceedingly good and his support was far above the average. The music by both brass band and orchestra was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Eiler has a first-class show and is deserving of the liberal patronage he is receiving.

FRIENDS of Dr. Steele Bailey presented him with a handsome gold watch and chain at the meeting of the Kentucky State Medical Society in Louisville last week. Dr. Bailey served the society as its secretary for 19 years and president several years. The magnificent remembrance came as a surprise to the genial doctor, who is as proud of his present as the average boy is of his first boots.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.—Mr. Mack Henry Gooch, aged about 65 years, and one of the best citizens of the Waynesburg section, was accidentally shot and instantly killed yesterday by his son, John Gooch, aged about 25. We were unable to learn how the accident occurred. Mr. Gooch is survived by a number of grown children, including Mrs. R. Y. Ballard, of Waynesburg, and Mr. G. T. Gooch, of Somerset. The killing has cast a gloom over the entire South end of the county, where Mr. Gooch was very popular.

SINCE our last issue two candidates have come out for State Senator against Mr. R. L. Hubble. First Mr. A. W. Carpenter, on the prohibition ticket, and later Mr. Hood Worthington, of Boyle, on the republican ticket. The more the merrier, and Mr. Hubble will win all the same. Mr. Carpenter will not, and this time ought not to get a corporal's guard, while Mr. Worthington, who was a democrat until a few years ago, will not fare a great deal better. His is another case of joining the enemy and running for office, which should be rebuked in no uncertain manner.

ALFRED SIMPSON, a clever old dakey, died Friday and was buried Saturday.

SIX per cent will be added to your city taxes if not paid before Nov. 1. R. G. Jones, collector.

CALL and see one of the greatest lines of overcoats and suits ever on sale in the East End. W. E. Perkins, Crab Orchard.

YOUR attention is called to the sale advertisement of Louis Whitt. The sale will occur at his home in the East End next Saturday, Oct. 28.

WILL pay the highest cash price for your eggs, turkeys, geese, guineas and all fowls; also beef hides and ginseng. H. B. Northcott, Stanford, Ky.

SOME PUMPKINS.—Mr. Armp Petrey, of Ottenheim, tells us he has a pumpkin vine with 17 pumpkins on it, the largest of which weighs 55 pounds.

I WILL sell on Monday, Nov. 6, county court day, 20 shares of stock in the Hustonville National Bank. A dividend of five per cent. will be declared on this stock Jan. 1, 1906. George D. Weatherford, Hustonville, Ky.

ALL parties having valid claims against the estate of the late Geo. W. Evans are notified to present them to me, properly proven, at Hedgeville, Boyle county, Ky., by November 15th, 1905, James H. Hutchings, Executor of Geo. W. Evans.

CLOAK SHOW.—One day only, Wednesday, Oct. 25th, we will have on display in our cloak room a manufacturer's line of fine cloaks and furs. Those desiring a coat unlike any one else's and want a big line to select from, should see this line. Severance & Son.

RAINES.—The wife of Mr. John H. Raines died Saturday after a protracted illness. The burial occurred Sunday. Mrs. Raines, who was a most excellent christian lady, is survived by a husband and several children. Mrs. Jeff J. Belden, of this place, being one of them. Much sympathy is felt for the members of the family in their great loss.

THE republicans of Lincoln county will have two former democrats on their ticket this time and it remains to be seen what kind of support they will give their new converts. A few years ago both Mr. Menefee and Mr. Worthington, the latter just nominated for State Senator against Mr. R. L. Hubble, were "shouting" democrats; now to their shame be it said, they both find their political homes in the log cabin of the republican party. Give them both a black eye by voting the democratic ticket.

SAUFLEY.—Mrs. Emily Chrisman Saufley, who for some years had been a resident of Stanford, died at the home of her son-in-law, Dr. C. A. Cox, at Corbin, last Friday, aged 84. Her death has removed from earthly scenes one of the purest and noblest of the Master's work, for since early life she had been a devout member of the Christian church and her long and useful life had been spent in His cause. Mrs. Saufley was born in Wayne county Oct. 25, 1821, and made Monticello her home until the death of her youngest son some 15 years ago. When only 16 she was married to Henry R. Saufley and to them were born seven children, three of whom survive her—Judge M. C. Saufley, of this place, Mrs. C. A. Cox, of Corbin, and Mrs. J. H. Grady, of Columbia. Her husband died after their removal here. Mrs. Saufley possessed those traits of character which won the esteem, love and admiration of all who knew and understood her. Self-sacrificing, highly intellectual, of generous impulses and tender sympathies she was the recipient of unbounded love on the part of her family and friends, who deeply mourn her loss. Notwithstanding her advanced age she retained much of her physical and mental vigor up to within a few hours of the end. She was of strong attachments, not only to her family but to her native land and in 1861 gave to the cause of the Confederacy two sons, one of whom was spared to her. On Saturday evening the body was taken to the home of her son and at 10:30 Sunday morning after a short service by Eld. Jos. Ballou at the grave the remains were gently laid beneath the sod to await the call at judgment. Truly, she has entered now unto that reward which is promised the good, the faithful and the true.

SEE our line of heating stoves. George H. Farris.

ATTEND A. W. Smith's sale in Boyle to-morrow, Wednesday, and Hoffman, White & Son's sale near Moreland the next day, Thursday, 26th.

"THE bringing out of Worthington will have a splendid effect in the county of Boyle, solidifying the democratic party," says a Danville dispatch.

LECTURE AT LANCASTER.—Col. Geo. W. Bain will lecture at Lancaster next Friday night, 27th, on "The New Woman and the Old Man." Hear him.

THE Kentucky State Journal, Frankfort, has a six-column quarto press in good condition, for sale very cheap. Write at once to W. P. Walton, Lexington or Frankfort.

THE ballots to be used at the election two weeks from to-day will be begun on this afternoon by this office. Including town elections 20 books of ballots will be required.

THE republicans did not get out another installment of candidates Saturday as was expected. Probably they realize they have bitten off already more than they can masticate.

TELL your friends and neighbors that the election is only two weeks off—Nov. 7. Insist on them voting for the straight democratic ticket and letting the rooster do their scratching.

MARK HARDIN and Al Florence are rival candidates for mayor of Stanford, while Judge W. A. Tribble and J. Bledsoe Bailey are contending for the honor and emoluments of police judge. A ticket for councilmen composed of the old board with the exception of John N. Menefee will be voted for Nov. 7. Walter O. Walker will take Mr. Menefee's place on the ticket.

THE largest mortgage ever recorded in the Pulaski county clerk's office was that between the Union Savings Bank and Trust Company, of Cincinnati, and the Cumberland River and Nashville Railroad Company for $2,500,000. This amount will be used in building a new railroad from Corbin to Jamestown, Tenn. The route taken will be: Starting from Corbin, down the Big Laurel river, through Whitley and Laurel counties to New Burnside, through Pulaski and Wayne counties to Monticello, thence through Clinton county to connect with the Tennessee Central at Jamestown. This will develop some of the richest coal and timber lands in Kentucky and will be one of the biggest tonnage and passenger routes in the South. The citizens of Somerset are working very hard to get the road to run into that city. The road, if built, will be the result of many year's effort on the part of Mr. L. Frank Hubble, late of Lancaster, but now residing near Rockcastle Springs. He was here Sunday in high spirits over the prospects of building the road.

(Additional Local on Second Page.)

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures la grippe cough and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

For Sale Privately.

My house and 10 acres of land situated just outside of town limits on the Somerset pike. House has 7 rooms, kitchen and servant's room, good cellar, stable and all necessary outbuildings. Water hydrant in the yard and one for stock.

J. P. BAILEY.

H. F. HILLENMEYER & SONS, Blue Grass Nurseries, Lexington, KY.,

Offer for the Fall of 1905 a full stock of fruit and ornamental trees, grape vines, asparagus, small fruits, rhubarb, shrubs, etc. We employ no agents, but sell direct to the planter. Catalogue on application.

McKinney Woolen Mills, McKinney, Kentucky.

Manufacturers of Jeans, Linseys, Flannel, Blankets and Yarn. Send us your wool. We take wool in exchange for work, allowing the market price. Satisfaction guaranteed. Call or write for prices and information. Agents wanted.

Fashionable Suits For Fall.

Give any man conscientious service, on matters upon which he is not posted, and he will appreciate the protection of his interests.

This store does that by selling garments which are above the standard of the usual ready-made.

Lasting satisfaction is assured by the high standard of quality and workmanship maintained and exemplified in our garments.

For Good Clothes See CUMMINS & M'CLARY. Stanford, Kentucky.

Great Closing-Out Sale.

We have rented a business house, now nearing completion, in Corbin, Ky. which we expect to occupy at an early date. Rather than move any stock from this place, we have decided to close our Entire Line of Merchandise at a sacrifice. This stock consists of not only the Cream of Dry Goods, such as Silks, Satins, Fine Woolens, Waistings, Fine Table Damasks, Underwear, Hosiery, Outings, Etc., Etc., but also contains the largest assortment of hand-painted Japanese, China and Bric-a-brac Novelties ever shown in this section. We anticipated a heavy Holiday Trade and bought very largely of this line. These goods have just arrived fresh from Japan, and will go on sale at once. In addition to the above we have a 5c and 10c department that is now loaded with good, useful money savers. This will be our last opportunity to supply the wants of our friends and customers and we deem it necessary to further remind you of the character of merchandise you now have an opportunity to purchase at sacrifice.

Owing to the short stay we have in your midst we are compelled to make this Strictly A Spot Cash Sale to One and All, and we ask those who have already made little tickets to please settle.

Stanford, Ky., Oct. 3, 1905.

JOHN P. JONES.

GENTRY & KENNEY, DANVILLE, KY.

Are Extensive Dealers and Manufacturers of Doors, Windows, Blinds, Sash, Rough and Dressed Lumber, Lime, Cement—Portland and Acme, Washington Red Cedar Shingles.

WRITE THEM FOR PRICES.